

Templates for Change

Templates for Change

is built on seven key propositions

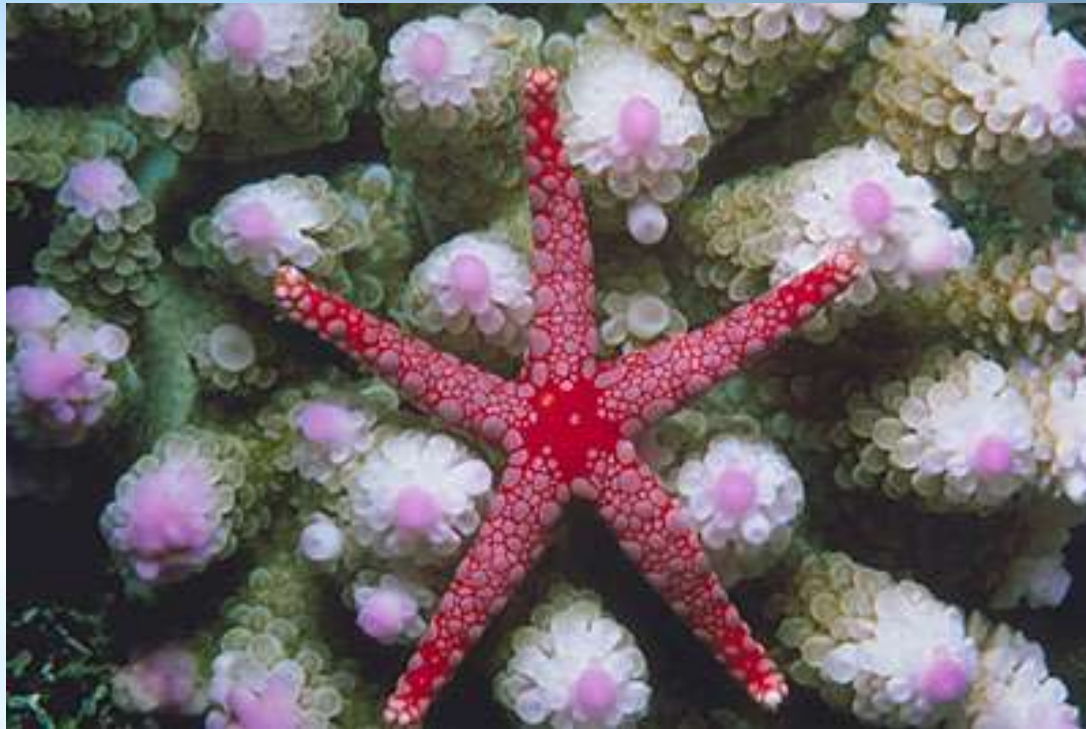

ONE: We are living in a unique time of change in world history....

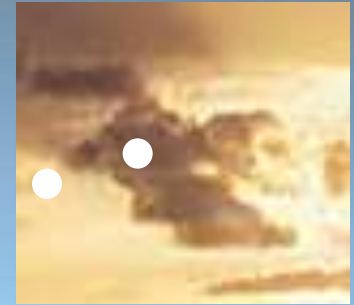

TWO: in which the human alignment to this change represents the path of our necessary personal and collective evolution.

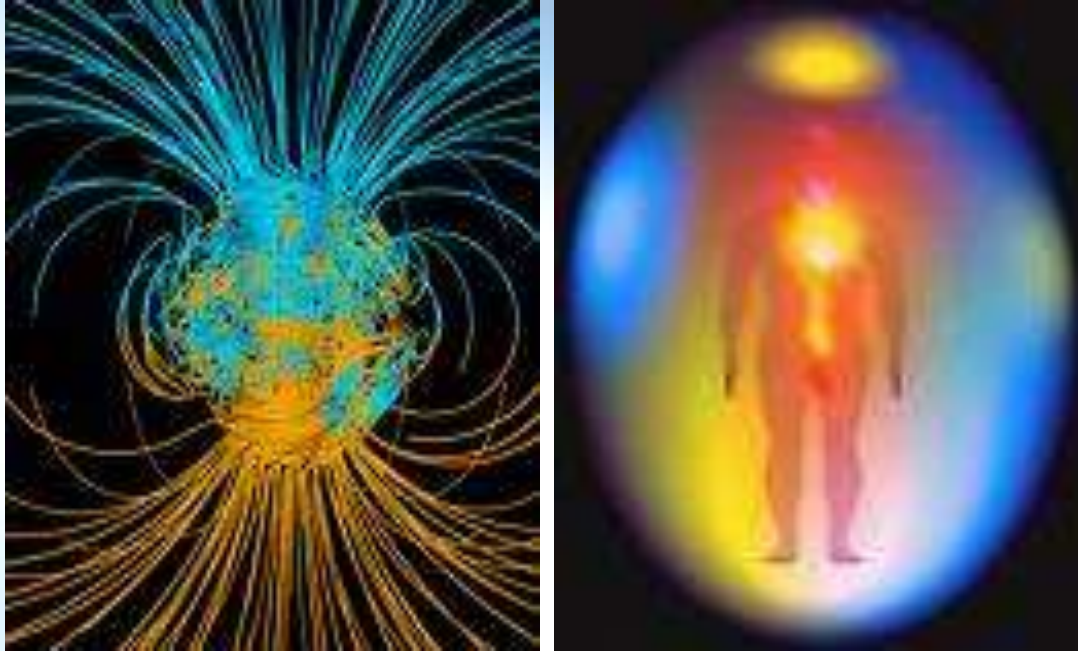

THREE: .. The templates for this new human alignment are to be found in universal laws such as underlie the human design

FOUR: The generation of a new humanity first emerges through personal and collective qualities such as kindness compassion and respect..

FIVE: ..that allows connection to new levels of consciousness and spiritual intelligence.

SIX: ..and a increasing sensory perception of the interconnective influences and subtle energies of all life.

SEVEN: Each and every person has the opportunity to include themselves in the proposition of these new times...becoming part of the collective response..

Pathfinders for Change

TFC seeks to encourage these principles within a collaboration of like-minded people as Pathfinders for Change.

...those who are looking beyond reactivity to current issues and are actively seeking to create a bridge into a new humanity

.. to be visionary into new possibilities, new opportunities and a new way of living

.. and moving towards the future as the future moves towards us
